The Users can contact the DPO at the e-mail: dpo@unleadmittedsrl.com.

3. WHAT DO WE DO? - PURPOSE OF THE PROCESSING

Users' personal data will be processed lawfully by the Data Controller pursuant to Article 6 of the Regulation for the following processing purposes:

- a) participation in the prize competition, to allow the Website navigation or to execute the rules of the prize event, accepted by the User during registration and to fulfil specific requests of the User. The User's data collected by the Data Controller for the purposes of participation include: gender, name, surname, date of birth, residential address, email address and telephone number. Without prejudice to the other provisions contained within this Privacy Policy, the User's personal data will be used by the Data Controller also for the purpose of ascertaining the identity of the User (also by validating the email address), thus avoiding possible scams or abuses, and contacting the User for service reasons only (e.g. managing the User's participation in the prize event, notifying any winnings and managing the phase of awarding and delivery of prizes; contact the User to obtain additional data and information - such as a copy of the identity card; make any urgent communications by telephone during the collection and use of prizes).
- b) legal obligations, or to fulfil obligations established by law, by an authority, by a regulation or by European legislation.

C)Marketing.

some of the User's personal data (i.e. name, surname, email address and telephone number) may also be processed by the Data Controller for marketing purposes (sending advertising material, direct sales, commercial communication), or so that the Data Controller can contact the User by mail, email, telephone (landline and/or mobile, with automated call or call communication systems with and/or without the intervention of an operator) and/or SMS and/or online messaging services (WhatsApp, Telegram, WeChat) to propose to the User the purchase of products and/or services offered by the same Data Controller and/or third-party companies, to present offers, promotions and commercial opportunities.

In case of consent, the User may at any time revoke the same making a request to the Data Controller in the manner and via the channels indicated in the following paragraph 7.

The User can also easily oppose further sending of promotional communications via email also by clicking on the appropriate link for the withdrawal of consent, which is present in each promotional email. Once the consent has been revoked, the Data Controller will send a notification to the User to confirm that the consent has been revoked. If the User intends to withdraw his consent to the sending of promotional communications by telephone, while continuing to receive promotional communications via email, or vice versa, please send a request to the Data Controller in the manner and via the channels indicated in the following paragraph 7.

The Data Controller declares that following exercise of the right to object to receipt of advertising by email, it is possible that, for technical and operational reasons (e.g., formation of contact lists already completed shortly before the Data Controller's receipt of the objection) the User continues to receive some additional promotional messages. Should the User continue to receive promotional messages 24 hours after exercising the right to object, please report the problem to the Data Controller, using the contacts details indicated in the following paragraph 7.

- c) Communication of data to third-party companies for their marketing purposes, the User's personal data (i.e., name, surname, gender, address, email address, telephone) will be communicated by the Data Controller to the following categories of third-party companies:
- (i) landline and mobile telephone companies;
 - (ii) companies which operate in the publishing world (printed, internet, television and new media);
 - (iii) companies which operate in the field of e-commerce of products and services;
 - (iv) companies operating in the energy sector;
 - (v) companies operating in the travel and leisure sector;
 - (vi) companies that deal with professional and/or school training;
 - (vii) advertising agencies, media and contact centres;
 - (viii) companies operating in the food sector;
 - (ix) NGOs and ONLUS;
 - (x) companies operating in the financial and insurance sector;
 - (xi) companies operating in repair of household appliances;
 - (xii) companies operating in the marketing and web communication sector, as well as their commercial partners, belonging to the e-commerce, mail order, publishing, utilities, tourism, sports, communication, entertainment, financial, insurance, automotive, large sectors consumption, for sending advertising material and other promotional and commercial purposes, by post or telephone and/or automated call systems or call communication without the intervention of an operator and/or electronic communications such as email, fax, messages like MMS or SMS or other types;
 - (xiii) companies operating as Marketing Services Providers who will use it for a variety of direct marketing, testing, research & product development purposes. Marketing Services Providers may use Users' data to create models useful to predict behaviour and preferences (e.g. how likely you are to buy a holiday online or take a particular type of holiday) or likely circumstances (e.g. whether you are eligible for a particular credit card);
 - (xiv) companies providing repair services for household white goods and similar appliances.

These categories above include companies that have asked to be explicitly indicated within the extended list (hereinafter, the "Extended List") of third party companies, customers and/or commercial partners and/or sponsors of the Data Controller (hereinafter, "Third-Party Companies"): to view the Extended List, click on the following link <https://selected-winners.co.uk/sponsorlist> *

Third-Party Companies, as independent data controllers, will process the User's personal data for their own marketing purposes (direct sales, sending advertising material and commercial communication), and will be able to contact them by mail, email, telephone (landline and/or mobile, with automated call or call communication systems with and/or without the intervention of an operator) and/or SMS and/or online messaging services (WhatsApp, Telegram, WeChat) to offer the User the purchase of products and/or services offered by the same categories of third-party companies and/or other companies they provide their services for and present offers, promotions and commercial opportunities to the User. Once the transfer has taken place, and except in the case in which the policy of each Third Company is accessible from this text and/or from the Extended List, it will be the responsibility of the Data Controller's business partner to provide Users with all the information required by the Applicable Regulation.

In case of consent, the User may at any time revoke the same making a request to the Data Controller in the manner and via the channels indicated in the following paragraph 7.

The Data Controller informs that User's personal data will be processed by the Third-Party Companies as independent data controllers, based on the specific privacy policy that will be issued by the Third-Party Companies to the Users. Any requests not to receive further commercial communications from Third-Party Companies, to which the data have already been communicated by the Data Controller, must therefore be addressed directly to them.

The provision of personal data for the processing purposes indicated above is optional but necessary, as failure to provide them will make it impossible for the User to register on the Website and take advantage of the services offered by the Data Controller on the Website. The personal data necessary to fulfil the purposes of the processing operations described in this paragraph 3 are indicated with an asterisk in the Website registration form.

Among others, we may share your personal information with our partner WINR Data Pty Ltd (WINR) and their global partners for the purposes of:*

- Fraud Prevention - preventing others from misusing your personal information. This may involve identity verification for anti-fraud, anti-money laundering, anti-crime, asset recovery, debt collection and reuniting individuals with unclaimed assets; and
- Digital Advertising - providing personalised advertising and content that is relevant to you. This may involve identity resolution for data analysis, matching and linkage.

WINR and their global partners will process and retain your personal information for as long as necessary for these specific purposes and on the lawful basis of legitimate interests.

You can submit a request to exercise any of your privacy rights to the Data Protection Officer at WINR <https://www.winrdata.com/privacy-policy/>

4 LEGAL BASIS

Participation in the competition (as described in the previous par. 3, lett. a)): the legal basis is constituted by the provision by the data subjects of a consent to the processing of personal data for one or more specific purposes. For this reason, the Data Controller asks the User to provide a specific, free and optional consent to pursue of these processing purpose.

Legal obligations (as described in the previous paragraph 3, lett. b)): the processing is necessary to fulfil a legal obligation to which the Data Controller is subject.

Marketing activities (as described in the previous paragraph 3, lett. c)) and for communication of data to Third Party Companies for their marketing purposes (as described in the previous paragraph 3, lett. d)), the legal basis is constituted by the provision by the data subjects of a consent to the processing of personal data for one or more specific purposes. For this reason, the Data Controller asks the User to provide a specific, free and optional consent to pursue each of these processing purposes.

Please notice that the Third-Party Companies may rely on different legal basis in order to undertake further processing activities, such as their Legitimate Interest, as better specified in their privacy policies, provided for in the Extended List available at <https://selected-winners.co.uk/>.

In case data shall be processed by said parties in pursuance of legitimate interests, it may include using such data for postal and telephone marketing - for said Third-Party Companies or others - but in either case communication shall be in relation to products or services which the Third Parties believe may be of interest to the Users based upon information which the Users have provided. As with all Users' data, the Users can also object to Third-Party Companies processing their data in this way.

5 PROCESSING METHODS, SECURITY AND DATA RETENTION

5.1 Processing Methods

Users' personal data will be processed by the Data Controller in Company's CRM, using manual and IT tools, as strictly necessary to achieve the purpose for which they are processed, and in any event, to ensure confidentiality of the data. No automated decision making is performed by the Data Controller.

5.2 Security

Access Control and Monitoring. Controller implements stringent measures to control and monitor access to its database. Access is strictly regulated through the use of log logging systems, which enable continuous and precise tracking of each user's activities. This ensures that all access to the database is meticulously documented and can be reviewed as needed. These measures are designed to prevent unauthorized access and ensure that the integrity of the data is maintained.

Data Backup Protocols. The Company places a high priority on data continuity and security. To that end, daily backups of the database are conducted to ensure that data is preserved in the event of an incident. Additionally, comprehensive weekly backups are carried out to further enhance the security of the stored information. These backup copies are maintained to support the Company's business continuity needs, particularly in response to any security threats or indicators.

Hardware and Software Security. The Company's hardware and servers are protected by robust security measures, including regularly updated antivirus and firewall software. These measures are critical in defending against a wide range of cyber threats. Additionally, the Company has implemented anti-spam and anti-phishing filters to protect its IT infrastructure from malicious attacks.

IT Access Control Access to the Company's IT tools and systems is governed by rigorous authentication processes. These systems ensure that each user is uniquely identified using credentials and log tracking, making it possible to clearly and unequivocally attribute actions to the correct individual. Access rights are assigned based on the principle of necessity. Each user is granted only the permissions required to perform his/her specific tasks and only for the duration necessary to complete the activity. This approach minimizes the risk of unauthorized access and ensures that users have the appropriate level of access to perform their duties effectively.

5.3 Data Retention

The personal data of the Users of the Website will be kept for the time strictly necessary to carry out the primary purposes connected to the User's participation in the competition (illustrated in paragraph 3 above) and in any case for the time necessary for the civil

In the cases referred to in paragraphs 3, lett. c) and d), Users' personal data will be kept by the Data Controller for as long as the User continues to carry out actions (we consider "actions" and "activities", by way of example and not exhaustive, any access to the portal, interaction with communications sent by the Data Controller and/or Third-Party Companies, access to any service or content of the Platform) and, in any case, up to the withdrawal of consent. If the User does not carry out any activity for a period of 36 months, the Data Controller will proceed with the cancellation of personal data.

The data retention period by Third-Party Companies can be found by the User in the information provided by them pursuant to the Applicable Regulation.

6 DATA TRANSFERS, SCOPE OF DISCLOSURE AND DISSEMINATION OF DATA

The User's personal data may be transferred outside the United Kingdom but, at the moment, only towards European Economic Area's (EEA) countries.

The Applicable Regulation permits the transfer of personal data from United Kingdom to the EEA and to any countries which, as of 31 December 2020, were covered by a European Commission 'adequacy decision' (this is to be kept under review by the UK Government).

Appropriate safeguards for data transfers to third countries:

Users' personal data may be transferred outside the European Union and the Controller ensures to use suitable safeguards for such transfers. If Users want to receive a copy of the measures applied to such transfers, additional to those listed in paragraph 5 below and in the present paragraph, Users can request them via the channels listed in paragraph 7 below.

Users' personal data may be disclosed to the employees and/or collaborators of the Data Controller in charge of managing the Website. These subjects, who are formally appointed by the Data Controller as "data processors", will process the User's data exclusively for the purposes indicated in this policy and in compliance with the provisions of the Applicable Regulation.

Third parties who may process personal data on behalf of the Data Controller as Data Processors may also become aware of the Users' personal data, such as, for example:

- service providers (such as administrative, IT, mailing services, credit recovery companies, etc.);
- consultants (such as accountants, auditing firms, lawyers, etc.);
- companies of the same group, associated companies.

Users have the right to obtain a list of any data processors appointed by the Data Controller, by making a request to the Data Controller in the manner indicated in paragraph 7 below.

Furthermore, the personal data of the Users may be communicated by the Data Controller, as well as to the Third-Party Companies referred to in paragraph 3, let. d), to other third parties, independent data controllers, to the extent that this is necessary to execute the competition regulations and/or to fulfil legal obligations, such as any public authority in charge of controlling the application of the rules on competitions and sweepstakes,, as well as third parties indicated in the prize competition regulations, to which the data must necessarily be communicated to allow the User to take advantage of any prizes won (e.g. travel agencies, ticket offices, hotels, etc.).

7 RIGHTS OF DATA SUBJECTS

Users may exercise their rights pursuant to the Applicable Regulations by contacting the Data Controller as follows:

- By sending a registered letter with return receipt to the registered office of the Data Controller:
Via Marconi 26 95030 Pedara (CT);
- By sending an e-mail to: info@unleadmittedsrl.com.

We remind that the Users can contact the DPO at the e-mail: dpo@unleadmittedsrl.com.

Pursuant to the Applicable Regulations, the Data Controller hereby declares that Users have the right to obtain information on (i) the source of their personal data; (ii) the purposes and methods of the processing; (iii) the logic applied to the processing, if carried out by means of electronic tools; (iv) the identity of the Data Controller and the Data Processor; (v) the parties or categories of party to whom the personal data may be communicated or who may gain knowledge of them in their capacity as data processing managers or persons in charge of processing.

Furthermore, Users have the right to obtain:

- a) access, update, rectify or, should they wish to do so, integrate their data;
- b) the cancellation, transformation into anonymous form or blocking of data which have been processed unlawfully, including data whose retention is unnecessary for the purposes for which they have been collected or subsequently processed;
- c) confirmation that the operations under a) and b) have been made known, including regarding their contents, to those to whom the data has been communicated or distributed, except in the event such compliance proves to be impossible or leads to the use of manifestly disproportionate means in respect of the right defended.

Furthermore, Users have:

- a) the right to withdraw consent at any time, if the processing is based on their consent (it should be noted that this withdrawal does not affect the lawfulness of the processing based on consent before the withdrawal);
- b) the right to data portability (the right to receive all their personal data in a format that is structured, commonly used and readable by automatic devices), the right to limit the processing of personal data and the right to cancellation ("right to be forgotten"); c) the right to object:
 - i) in whole or in part, for legitimate reasons, to the processing of their personal data, even if pertinent to the purpose of the collection; ii) in whole or in part, to the processing of their personal data for the purpose of sending advertising and direct marketing materials, or for carrying out market research or business communications; iii) if personal data is processed for direct marketing purposes, at any time to object to the processing of their data for this purpose, including profiling in so far as it is connected to such direct marketing.
- d) Whereby it is believed that processing of the data is in breach of the Regulation, the right to file a complaint with the Supervisory Authority (in the Member State in which they normally reside, in which they work or in which the alleged violation has occurred).

The UK supervisory authority is the Information Commissioner Office, and their contact details are: The Information Commissioner's Office
